On October 2015, Nanairo Kakumei anime was made by "Ohasta"

It's the story when I went to the dubbing site for observoting Kannichiwo, Yuzuhara desu!

First, I greeted the seiyuu-san and the staffs

Yaroshiku onegai-shimasu!

everyane was sa lively and had nice vaice

after that, "the test"

they were let to reod out oll the script

Nana and friends come to alive...!!

her act an this crying scene was amazing, until I wanted ta cry tao...

Ueda-san wha played Nana her crying voice was amazing...!

just like the test, it was in all go

next was the real thing

Ueda-san is super cute...

I was like this...

While I was listening to them aiming as like as the manga, the directors ordered for retakes one by one they were also paying attention to lines' nuances that even the mangaka herself didn't realize

Obentou scene
Yuyu can ask because it's Nana-chan... please
weak voice like it's about to disappear Ishiki-son who ployed as Yuyu it's very omozing how seiyuu to this...
Nana-chan said she likes ta sit at the edge Whot a little devil
where the heck did the weakness just now go!
able to moke impression change by their voice then Yamashita-son who ployed os Shiko his sexy voice is amazing... because Kuriyama wha cut dawn her hair and made that declaratian wos pretty cool...
overflowing sexy & cool aura
the one who's cool is youu!! thot was whot I wonted to shout out loud

for the evil Azusa and Chihomi of the manga, they were having them had a cute voice Hase Miki-san Takeuchi Emiko-san but...
forcing yourself to match is just annoying~~ teasing tone
there, make the voice more devil-like hai
forcing yourself to match is just annoying...
Right?
Nana-chan.....?
A true devil has come...! for the lines that weren't in the script in here, ad-lib it somehow~ haaaai

at the every mament af seiyuu-san let aut their vaice, the atmosphere changed. They all were so amazing, but at the break time...

Watching the completed anime, all the characters' voice is so amazing and they moves so lively too. I'm very touched...!

lol, this scan-lation is sucks and all, but...
that's the more reason
why you have to buy this manga when it's published in your country... right...?
Uwaah....!!
